

HOMESCHOOL
HEROES

Teaching Toolbelt Series– Strategies for MATH

Krisa Winn

SPED Homeschool

- What's going on?
- Explore testing and support-
  - Letsgolearn.com, Mindprint
<https://www.spedhomeschool.com/store/products/4345/mindprint-student-assessment-plus-consultation>
- Things to look for in math curriculum programs-
  - Multisensory approach
  - Less clutter on the page
  - Reteaching activities
  - Space for answers
  - Systematic Approach
  - Review, but not excessive
  - Consider computer based programs
- Use Accommodations and Modifications
- Teaching Strategies
- Utilize manipulatives
- Use a multisensory approach

Homeschool Heroes

Resources-

- Curriculum Programs to Explore:
  - Math U See, Right Start Mathematics, Simply Good & Beautiful Math, Key to Math Series, Life of Fred Math, Shiller Math, Nicole the Math Lady
- Books and Parent Resources:
  - Roadblocks to Learning by Lawrence J. Greene
  - Origoeducation.com
- Learning Tools:
  - Manipulatives- Wooden Pattern blocks, One inch cubes, Unifix cubes, Base Ten Blocks, Complete Number Card Set, Dice
  - Flashcards- LoneStarlearning.com, child1st.com, Three Corner Flashcards by Trend
  - Games- rightstartmath.com/games, mugginsmath.com,
  - Videos and Music- School House Rock, Musical Multiplication by the Good and the Beautiful, Timestales