Devote Time to Pray for Abortion to End on International Day of Repentance for Abortion

Thomas W. Jacobson, Founder, Global Life Campaign

Today is the 105th anniversary of the first government authorization of abortion, the beginning of an evil policy currently adopted by 156 nations, resulting in a total of 1.4 Billion Babies murdered. Abortion is the Greatest Genocide in history, occurring on our watch, in our lifetimes! Abortion is the number 1 human rights violation and the number 1 cause of death worldwide! Will you devote time today, and daily or regularly, to pray for an end to the slaughter of innocents in our midst?

Slavery plagued, divided and substantially destroyed the United States, but prior generations faced and ended that evil practice. Afterwards, Almighty GOD blessed our nation like no other in history. Like slavery, this great tragedy must end! Like the ancient nations in the Bible and like slavery, our nation will be judged for all the sin and innocent bloodshed. But abortion can end voluntarily and peacefully by a national transformation, which begins by genuine repentance and prayer, and the intervention of GOD through His people, the Church. Again, will you devote time today and in the days to come, personally, with your family, in your church, to pray for an end to the slaughter of innocent babies in our midst and worldwide?

Historical beginning of government approved abortion: On 18 November 1920, the former Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic – which later expanded to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) – became the first government in history to authorize elective abortion (Jacobson & Johnston, Abortion Worldwide Report, GLC Publications, p. 46). The Marxist Russian revolution that began in 1917 led to murder of 20 million of their own people, and then the authorization of abortion to put and keep women in the workforce. Their primary value was what they could contribute to the State. Karl Marx declared, “nothing can have value, without being an object of utility” (Book One). Marxism and the Russian Revolution were a direct rejection of the Christian faith (which had been the center of Russian culture for a millennium), and a rejection of the existence and sovereignty of Almighty GOD.

Redemption, transformation, and a rebuilding of our nations – including Russia and the United States – cannot be accomplished by government policy changes, but only through genuine repentance, humble prayers, faith in Jesus Christ, and the Church arising as light, salt, and “the pillar and support of the Truth” (1 Timothy 3:15).

PRAY accordingly!

For the LORD, the sacred gift of life, and remembrance of the babies,
