Choose This Day Whom You Will Serve (& Voter information & guidelines)

Thomas W. Jacobson, Founder, Global Life Campaign

When I asked The LORD what I should write this week, these words came to my mind: “Choose this day whom you will serve.” For my fellow citizens in the United States, and citizens in Israel and other nations holding elections, as you vote consider what The LORD is saying to us:

Joshua 24:14-18: “‘Now, therefore, fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and truth; and put away the gods . . . and serve the LORD. If it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve: whether the gods . . . or the gods of . . . ; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.’ The people answered and said, ‘Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers [to this land] . . . , and who did these great signs in our sight and preserved us through all the way in which we went and among all the peoples . . . We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.’”

If you choose to serve The LORD, then follow His guidelines (see last week’s GLC Weekly, “Biblical Voting Guidelines”). I recommend that you read these short articles: Christians and Voting; Why Your Vote Matters (Wallbuilders); and “Vote Biblically” by Pastor Jack Hibbs: <https://jackhibbs.com/why-vote/>. Vote for those who most closely align with these standards.

Invest the time to research the position of the candidates and the issues on the ballot. For those in the USA, here are some voter guides and resources (I’m not endorsing everything on these sites, but make them known and available to you):

Remember that you represent Jesus Christ on this earth, and He put you here to take dominion and be His vessel to bring His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

If you vote for a candidate who respects and will protect human life, from conception to natural death, then in this way you have chosen to “serve the LORD.” If you vote for a candidate who will do only “righteousness and justice,” do only what is right in the eyes of GOD, respect authority and the constitution and the law, then in this way you have chosen to “serve the LORD.” If you vote contrary to these standards, you misrepresent Him and support government doing what is contrary to His righteous purpose for government.

PRAY that GOD’s people will vote, and vote according to His fixed standards for righteousness and justice, and the entire electorate would choose wise and good rulers, and not be deceived.

For the LORD, the sacred gift of life, the sacred gift of liberty, and remembrance of the babies,
