Americans: Rededicate Your Nation as “one Nation under GOD” on May 17

Thomas W. Jacobson, Founder, Global Life Campaign

This weekend, on Sunday, May 17, is a very important historical event in the United States when Americans gather on the National Mall in Washington, DC, to rededicate ourselves as “one nation under GOD.” Join in person if you can. I’ll be there. Or join online by clicking this link for Freedom 250.

In 1776, the Continental Congress called for a national “day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer” for 17 May 1776. And the people and military of the American Colonies stopped work, humbled themselves and repented of their sins. They sought The LORD for His favor and protection, and for success in their just cause for liberty and to govern themselves. Seven weeks later, the Continental Congress, representing the American people, approved the Declaration of Independence. The Rededication this coming Sunday, May 17, is the 250th anniversary of those solemn gatherings nationwide that led to our independence.

On 29 January 2026, President Donald J. Trump issued A Proclamation that 2026 is a “Year of Celebration and Rededication,” calling upon all citizens of the United States to “rededicate ourselves as one Nation under God.” A week later, at the National Prayer Breakfast, he announced the national Rededicate 250 event to be held on May 17, in Washington, D.C., on the National Mall. He said, “We’re inviting Americans from all across the country to come together on our National Mall to pray, to give thanks” (“Trump Announces May 17 Event to Rededicate U.S. as ‘one nation, under God’”). If you will not be with us on the National Mall, join or host an event in your own church or city.
